NAAIA Unveils Innovation in Insurance at 2024 Regional Forums

Washington, DC – The National African American Insurance Association (NAAIA) proudly announces its upcoming series of 2024 Regional Forums, a nationwide initiative showcasing "Innovation in Insurance - Adapting to Global Challenges." This multi-city event aims to bring together over 750 NAAIA members and insurance professionals for an engaging exploration of industry innovations.

Scheduled throughout March and April 2024, these forums will be held in five major cities across the United States:

South Region: Richmond, VA

Central Region: St. Louis, MO

West Region: Las Vegas, NV

Northeast Region: Boston, MA

Midwest Region: Detroit, MI

Event Highlights:

Theme: Innovation in Insurance - Adapting to Global Challenges

Speakers: 75+ diverse industry experts

Audience: 750+ NAAIA members and insurance professionals

Pricing: Member - $75 | Public - $125

"NAAIA is committed to fostering innovation within the insurance sector and providing a platform for professionals to adapt to global challenges," says Omari Aarons-Martin, Executive Director & Chief Operating Officer of NAAIA.

The Deputy Commissioner, Richard Tozier, will also give opening remarks, welcoming members and presenters from Florida, Atlanta, Charlotte, and Central Virginia across the South region.

Join us on March 12th in Richmond for the next chapter of empowerment at the 2024 South Region Forum. Engage in sessions like 'Revolutionizing Strategies for a Progressive DEI Culture' and the Opening Plenary on 'Ensuring Success in a Shifting Marketplace: Navigating Industry Trends.'
