NAAIA National Announces 2023 Annual Conference in Columbus, Ohio

Networking, development and career opportunities abound!

Washington, DC – The National African American Insurance Association (NAAIA) announces its 2023 Annual Conference will be held in Columbus, Ohio on October 10-13, 2023.

Now in its 26th year, NAAIA’s Annual Conference is the premier event for African Americans in insurance, risk management and adjacent fields to build relationships, network and gain invaluable industry experience.

“Columbus is a vibrant city with a strong insurance presence,” says Omari Jahi Aarons, NAAIA Executive Director & Chief Operating Officer. “Ohio is where NAAIA was birthed and incorporated 26 years ago and we’re excited to return to our “home state” for what we’re expecting to be our largest conference ever.”

The conference features include:

- MainStage plenaries with industry keynotes and panel discussions on emerging trends.

- Highly-interactive and engaging workshops featuring NAAIA leaders, partners and relevant experts.
- Specialized spaces and opportunities for attendees to engage together for relationship-building, mentoring and networking
- Annual Gala celebrating the annual leadership award winners and lifetime achievement award recipient.

A key new feature to the conference is an expanded two-day career fair and talent expo in which participating employers meet career-ready candidates looking for their next opportunity. The career fair will be open to job seekers of all levels in the community.

NAAIA is also hosting two pre-conference summits for professional development for emerging professionals and agents and brokers.

Registration for the annual conference will open in June. To inquire about conference sponsorship opportunities, contact naaia.service@gmail.com.
