NAAIA Announces 2024 Membership Town Hall

Charlotte, NC – The National African American Insurance Association (NAAIA) is pleased to announce its 2024 Membership Town Hall, set to take place on June 27th, 2024, at 12:00 PM EST. This hybrid event will be held both in-person in Charlotte, NC, and virtually, offering members a unique opportunity to engage with NAAIA leadership and hear important updates.

The program will kick off with a welcome from Omar Powell, President of the NAAIA Charlotte Chapter and AVP at Sompo International, followed by updates from Omari Aarons-Martin, Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer. Attendees will learn about NAAIA's progress on Vision 2030, our plan to engage US-based communities of color and empower Black professionals through strategic interventions and programs.

Key segments of the Town Hall will include:

- Insights from the NAAIA Census
- Recap of 2024 Regional Forums
- Insights into the NAAIA strategic partners
- Preview of the National Leadership Summit and National Conference

Following the Town Hall, NAAIA members are invited to join the NAAIA Charlotte Summer Social and Member Appreciation event, hosted by Sompo. This evening event will feature food, drinks, and networking opportunities, celebrating the achievements of the NAAIA community.

“We are excited to connect with our members and share the plans for NAAIA’s future,” said Aarons–Martin. “This program is a great opportunity for members to engage with NAAIA’s leaders, celebrate our progress, and look forward to the work we will continue to do together.”
