2024 Annual Conference

New Orleans – September 17–19, 2024

NAAIA is excited to bring you to the vibrant city of New Orleans, where history, culture, and rhythm converge to create an unparalleled experience. Nestled along the mighty Mississippi River, New Orleans is a melting pot of diverse influences, boasting a rich tapestry of French, African, Spanish, and Creole heritage. Known as the birthplace of jazz, the city's musical heartbeat echoes through the cobblestone streets, captivating visitors with the soulful sounds of trumpets and saxophones.

The Conference will be located near the unique architecture of the French Quarter, where wrought-iron balconies adorn colorful buildings, and the aroma of Creole cuisine wafts through the air. From world-class restaurants serving gumbo and beignets to lively street performances, every corner tells a story in this enchanting city.

New Orleans is a haven for artistic expression, with galleries and street art reflecting the city's creativity and resilience. The annual Mardi Gras celebration, a kaleidoscope of colors and festivities, showcases the city's unbridled spirit and sense of community.

Whether strolling through the historic Garden District, exploring the vibrant Bywater neighborhood, or cruising down the Mississippi on a steamboat, New Orleans promises a sensory feast that will linger in your memory long after the conference concludes. Join us in the Big Easy, where every moment is a celebration of life, culture, and the unmistakable magic that is New Orleans.
